Dear AAA member,

Thank you for inquiring about the Trip Interruption Protection offered by AAA. This benefit covers certain out-of-pocket expenses, assistance to any member whose vehicle is stolen, or not drivable due to damage caused by a traffic accident, 100 miles or more away from home. Members may be reimbursed if they are driving or riding in the vehicle which becomes damaged at the time of the accident or collision. Members will be reimbursed based on their level of membership:

AAA Basic
- Local lodging and meals in the vicinity where your car is being repaired.
  or
- Rental or replacement car to continue your trip, or commercial transportation (via common carrier licensed to carry passengers for hire) to your destination or home, whichever is closer.

Benefit pays a maximum of $100.00 for each member (maximum of $500.00 per family unit) for expenses incurred within 72 hours of the event.

AAA Plus
- Local lodging and meals in the vicinity where your car is being repaired.
  or
- Rental or replacement car to continue your trip, or commercial transportation (via common carrier licensed to carry passengers for hire) to your destination or home, whichever is closer.

Benefit pays a maximum of $250.00 for each member (maximum of $1,000.00 per family unit) for expenses incurred within 72 hours following the event.

AAA Premier & AAA Premier RV
- Claim forms are available by calling us toll-free at (800) 390-3894 (select option “4” for customer service).

To receive reimbursement, members must complete the Trip Interruption Reimbursement Protection claim form and submit it to AAA, along with the itemized receipts for the covered out-of-pocket expenses that have been incurred. In the event of accident or theft, please include a copy of the police report of the incident. These may obtained by contacting the police department responsible for handling the incident. If the claim is for a vehicle breakdown, please include copy of the repair bill. AAA does not reimburse members for taxes, gratuities, alcohol purchases or auto repair. A member reimbursement request must be received by AAA within 30 days of the date the incident occurred.

Note: Itemized restaurant and/or hotel receipts are required; AAA does not accept credit card statements as receipts.
